Make The UK The R&D Capital Of The World

What we have

- Top tier engineering & research talent
- Generous R&D tax breaks
- Surprisingly malleable legislation & regulation

We need to

- Activate the UK's latent talent in specific strategic areas (cause areas)
- Make ambition and optimism high-status in the UK
- Campaign on progress-blocking regulations

Not Another Hackerhouse

An event space, maker space, campaigning org, meta-community, social club, and incubator - all rolled into one
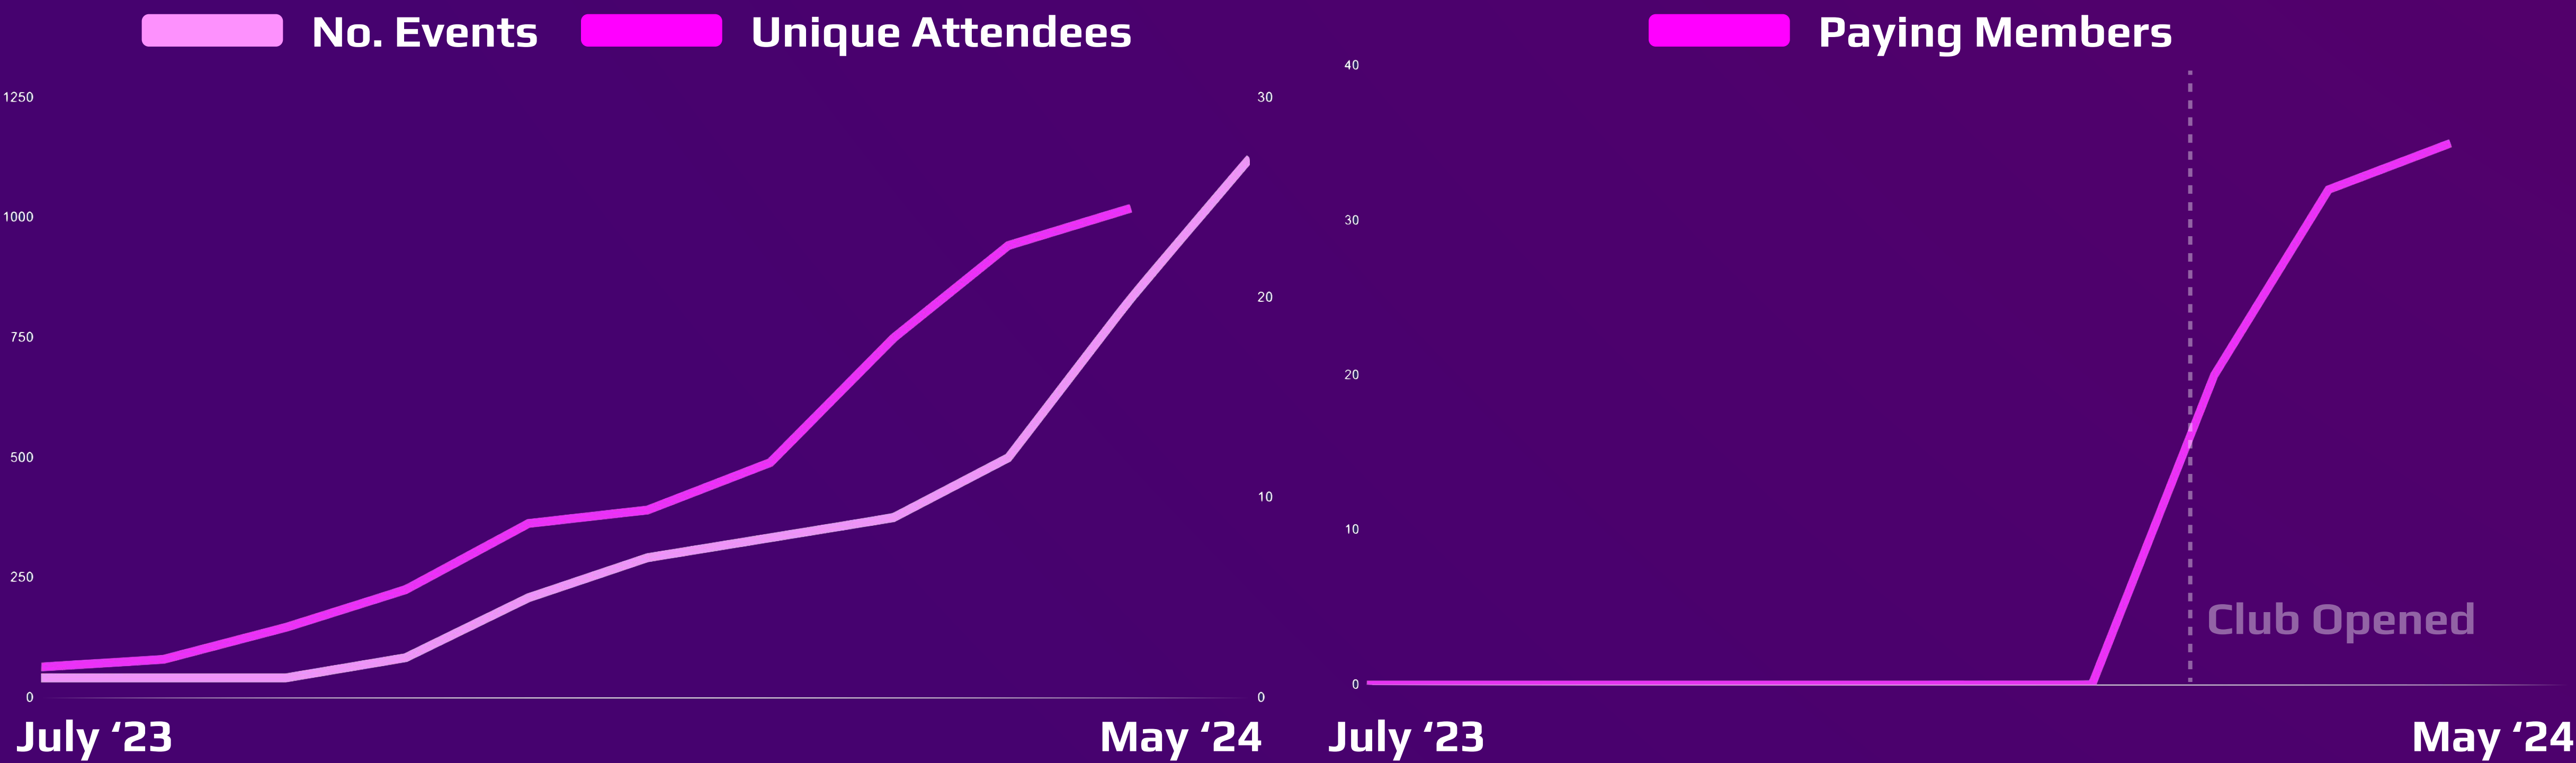

- A physical location to bring together and nurture the UK's most ambitious and optimistic builders
- Structured on-ramps for bored software engineers to enter new fields
- Targeted policy campaigning on areas the block builders

THE NEXT STEP

Going All In

We've achieved a lot already as a group of part-time volunteers, and we're now looking for donors to support our long-term mission.

Book a visit to FutureHouse to hear what's planned, and how you can get involved.
